

ABSTRACT

A Media Access Control (MAC) protocol scheme for binding a response to a frame that requested the response. The response specifies a portion of the frame check sequence contained in the frame. The specified portion of the frame check sequence serves to identify the response as belonging to that frame.

20075877.doc